

THE FLIGHT OF ABRAHAM.

(As Reported by a Modern Daily Paper.)

(1.) THE ALARM.

"On Thursday night, after he had retired, Mr. LINCOLN was aroused, and informed that a stranger desired to see him on a matter of life and death.  A conversation elicited the fact that an organized body of men had determined that Mr. LINCOLN should never leave the City of Baltimore alive.  Statesmen laid the plan, Bankers indorsed it, and Adventurers were to carry it into effect."

(2.) THE COUNCIL.

"Mr. LINCOLN did not want to yield, and his friends cried with indignation. But they insisted, and he left."

(3.) THE SPECIAL TRAIN.

"He wore a Scotch plaid Cap and a very long Military Cloak, so that he was entirely unrecognizable."

(4.) THE OLD COMPLAINT.

"Mr. LINCOLN, accompanied by Mr. SEWARD, paid his respects to President BUCHANAN, spending a few minutes in general conversation."

Dr. Brown's Patent Baby-Tender.

This article of Nursery Furniture is different from, superior to, and supplies the place of everything heretofore used for that purpose. It combines, by simple changes, which may be instantly made, a SAFE, COMFORTABLE SLEEPING COUCH, A DELIGHTFUL BABY-JUMPER, A HOBBY-HORSE, NURSERY, DINING AND ROCKING-CHAIR, A SWING, A STYLISH CARRIAGE AND PERAMBULATOR, A PLAY AND WORK STAND. It is suspended from the ceiling, or a graceful standard, by a steel spring; is cushioned so as to require no bedding, and is tastefully trimmed in various styles, at prices ranging from $8 to $25. Sent by express everywhere. It will save in washing, in bringing up one child, more than its cost, and much of the time and attention of mother and nurse.

It gives the child entire freedom of action for body and limbs, insures a healthy action of the stomach and bowels, promotes and strengthens the natural motion and development of the system, preserving it from injury or the possibility of danger.

It is compact, strong, and durable, and to those having the care of infants it is indispensable.

N. B.—"The exercise obtained by our nursery children in one of our baby-tenders very much aids in their proper physical development, and enables us to dispense with the services of one assistant nurse."—[Matron of the Home for the Friendless.

THE GREAT FRONTIER and BORDER STORIES.

No Novels ever presented to the American public have proven so popular as the superb romances of Western frontier life by Edward S. Ellis, Esq., in their truthful delineations of early frontier life and settlement; in their masterly exposition of Indian character and scout adventure, they are wider than the most sensational story, yet are reliably true, pure, and instructive. The Romances thus far published embrace:

SETH JONES; or, The Captives of the Frontier. BILL BIDDON, TRAPPER; or, Life in the Far Northwest. THE FRONTIER ANGEL: A Romance of Kentucky Rangers' Life.

Just Published, March 1st: NATT TODD;

OR, THE FATE OF THE SIOUX CAPTIVE.

A Sequel to "Bill Biddon," by EDWARD S. ELLIS.

A romance of unique beauty and interest—of life, adventure, heroic deeds, love, and death in the wilds of the far Northwest and on the Oregon trail.
